

INVITATION TO ATTEND

NATIVE AMERICAN FISH AND WILDLIFE SOCIETY
CONSERVATION OFFICER
LAW ENFORCEMENT
TRAINING

August 31 – Sept 4, 2015
BIA Regional Office
Room 271 - Hallway B - Manuel Lujan Jr. Bldg.
1011, Indian School Road NW
Albuquerque, NM
(I-40 and 12th Street - Next to Holiday Inn Express)

Sponsored By:
NAFWS SW Region and National Office

Hosted By:
U.S. Fish & Wildlife Service – SW Region
Bureau of Indian Affairs

Hotel Information:
Holiday Inn Express & Suites Albuquerque Historic Old Town
2300 12th Street NW
Albuquerque, NM 87104
ALL room costs and up to $120 in per diem will be covered by the NAFWS
PLEASE HAVE A CREDIT CARD FOR INCIDENTAL EXPENSES

NO REGISTRATION FEE

Space is limited for up to 45 participants

EACH individual officer must register by August 10, 2015 at: members.nafws.org

For more info. please contact: Joe Early – Native American Liaison – USFWS Southwest Region
(505) 248-6602 or Joe_Early@fws.gov

PROPOSED AGENDA:

Federal Natural Resource Laws in Tribal Country * Enforcement of Cultural and Natural Resource
Crimes * Firearms and Pepper Spray Recertification
Self-Defense * Wildlife Identification
Crime Scene (wildlife and fire) Investigative Techniques
LE Tactical Tracking Operations

A formal agenda will be provided at a later date

If you want give a presentation or have suggestions please submit them by July 24.

